Eighty-six bills were introduced Tuesday in the Kentucky Senate and House. Among them were several bills on the order of the Chinn School Book measure and the Roberts Local Option Bill; several anti-trust bills; an anti-lobbying bill; an anti-cigarette bill; a new capitol bill; a bill for an additional Circuit Judge in Jefferson county; a bill for a new Judicial district, composed of the counties of Leslie, Clay and Knox; a bill to submit a constitutional amendment abolishing the secret ballot, and two bills for a poll-tax qualification on voters.

Blackburn Elected.

HON. J. C. S. BLACKBURN was Tuesday elected United States Senator by the Kentucky Legislature to succeed Senator Wm. Lindsay. Mr. Blackburn received 57 votes in the House and 22 in the Senate, and Governor Bradley received 42 in the House and 12 in the Senate. All the Republicans were present and voted. Three Democrats were unavoidably absent, and Senators Hays and Alexander remained away, but they announced their intention of voting for Blackburn. Blackburn's name was presented in the Senate by Senator Thomas and in the House by Mr. Hickman. Gov. Bradley's name was presented in the Senate by Senator Howard and in the House by Mr. Slack. Senator Blackburn will be formally elected next Tuesday. Hon. W. J. Bryan will address the Legislature before the vote is cast. A banquet will be tendered Mr. Bryan that night at the Capital Hotel. Only 250 tickets will be issued to the banquet, which will be five dollars per plate. Tickets will be issued by Percy Haley or J. C. Cantrill.

A column of British-Boer war news and several columns of telegraphic events are printed on page two.

The New York World,
Thrice-a-Week Edition.

Almost a Daily—At the Price of a Weekly.

The most widely circulated "weekly" newspaper in America is the Thrice-a-Week edition of The New York World, and with the Presidential campaign now at hand you can not do without it. Here are some of the reasons why it is easily the leader in dollar a year journalism.

It is issued every other day, and is to all purposes a daily.

Every week each subscriber receives 18 pages and often during the "busy" season 24 pages each week.

The price is only $1.00 per year.

It is virtually a daily at the price of a weekly.

Its news covers every known part of the world. No weekly newspaper could stand a lone and furnish such service.

The Thrice-a-Week World has at its disposal all of the resources of the greatest newspaper in existence—the wonder of modern journalism—"America's Greatest Newspaper," as it has been justly termed—The New York World.

Its political news is absolutely impartial. This fact will be of especial value in the Presidential campaign coming on.

The best of current fiction is found in its columns.

These are only some of the reasons; there are others. Read it and see them all.

We offer this unexcelled paper and The Bourbon News together one year for $2.50.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $3.

Tribute To Eld. J. S. Sweeney.

To express adequately the sorrow and regret which the members of the C. W. B. M. experience in giving up Elder J. S. Sweeney, who has been the pastor of the Paris Christian Church for twenty-nine years, is beyond their power; nevertheless, they desire to do so in some measure through the undersigned committee.

Coming to us as he did in the vigor and strength of his young manhood, we realize that Bro Sweeney has given to us the best years of a grand, useful life spent in his Master's service, going in and out among these people with dauntless courage, unflinching devotion to duty and justice, with clean hands, a pure heart, a level head and a resolute purpose.

He has especially endeared himself to us by his wise counsel, by his powerful sermons full of instruction, experience, warning and encouragement, by his readiness and willingness to speak words of comfort and consolation in our times of sorrow—while mayhap his own heart was burdened with griefs which he did not disclose—and by his sincere sympathy in our happier hours.

It is not possible to appreciate too warmly all that we owe to this man who has been our wise, safe, loving leader and friend for so many years. For all that he has been to us we love and honor him, and his name is written on the "lintels and two side-posts" of many homes in this community.

To-day, only outline shadows of what he has accomplished are seen; but when we have moved far enough forward to obtain the proper perspective, then the value and influence of this life dignified by noble purposes and devoted to all that is true and pure, can be properly estimated.

Happy are we whose loving gratitude and reverent benedictions shall cheer him on his way as he leaves us and moves up the slopes, still smiling on us, we hope, as the light of Heaven gleams on his noble head.

May God bless Bro Sweeney and his family wherever their lot may be, and may he have many more years of usefulness in this world and an incorruptible inheritance of life eternal when his work is finished.
